Calcutta, the 25/27 January 1911.

SIR,

(IN reply to your letter no. 5995-1, dated the 1st December 1910,) I am directed to state, for the information of the Governor in Council / the Lieutenant-Governor in Council / His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor / your information, that the Government of India have decided that on the occasion of the Coronation in London of His Majesty the King, Emperor of India, no presents from individuals in British India will be received by them for transmission to England. Addresses for presentation to His Majesty will only be received from individuals of high position and from public bodies, subject to the recommendation of the local Government or Administration, whose consent must in the first instance be obtained, and by whom they will be forwarded to the Government of India for transmission to England. All addresses should be confined to congratulatory and complimentary matter and should exclude expressions of opinion on political questions, requests for favours or allusions to topics of a controversial nature. In cases of doubt as to whether an address infringes these conditions, the local Government or Administration should refer the matter to the Government of India before giving an express or implied approval to the draft.
